Property Description

This beautiful home is located in an excellent neighborhood at less than 5 minutes from the center of Atenas on a 1,225 m² property with lots of green area for gardening lovers. The home is a single story, but you must take a few steps to reach the main entrance door and the beautiful and very large terrace where you might spend most of your time and entertain with family and friends. From the terrace you can enter to the nice living room, followed by a separate and nice size kitchen. A large laundry room is attached to the kitchen and give more space for storage. The home features a master bedroom with ensuite bathroom and a guest bedroom with its own full bathroom as well. In front of the home, there is a little covered sitting area, and at a little distance there is a Jacuzzi where you can relax open air. The freestanding carport has a small storage room attached and up to three cars can fit in there.
